

John E. Heaton, M.A., Marriage and Family Therapist

John Heaton is the Branch Manager of the Neuropsychiatry Branch for the Aeromedical Consultation Service at the United States Air Force School of Aerospace Medicine, Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio.

John began his career serving as a Mental Health Technician in the U.S. Air Force, and during that time he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Social Psychology from Park University (2004). He went on to complete his Master of Arts degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas (2006). In Texas, he practiced as a Marriage and Family Therapist and Licensed Professional Counselor for a reputable non-profit organization, where he oversaw the counseling and case management programs in the Youth Services department.

John currently works as a part-time outpatient Marriage and Family Therapist at New Creation Counseling Center in Tipp City. He is also a National Certified Counselor (NCC). He also serves as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine, teaching the Couples and Family Therapy course to psychiatry residents.

He has worked with a variety of children, teens, adults, couples and families across a variety of ethnic backgrounds and cultures.